

At least 8.67m UK pension pots from 118 UK pension funds have a financial interest in UK infrastructure...²

Total UK Pension Fund Assets:

£2426bn

Source: Willis Towers Watson $3,111bn, using exchange rate on 12/02/2019

Total UK Pension Fund Infrastructure Assets:

Est. £105bn¹

Public Sector Pension Schemes

64 of these UK-based pension funds are public sector schemes, representing a total of 5.12 million public pension pots

Private Sector Pension Schemes

54 of these UK-based pension funds are private sector schemes, representing a total of 3.55m private sector pension pots

Breakdown of Public Sector Pension Pots

Local Authorities	4,563,811
Universities	446,962
Other schemes	111,645

Total 5,122,418

Private Sector Pension Pots

Financial Services	619,076
Retail	718,240
Energy	596,128
Railways	338,019
Manufacturing	400,406
Telecoms	331,882
Other	281,421
Media	137,166
Construction	86,665
Non-profit	40,000
Total	3,549,003

Individual Infrastructure Sectors

Sectors	Pension Schemes	Members
Airports	77	5,966,508
Energy Networks	68	5,825,629
Fixed Line Telecoms	69	5,537,650
PPP	69	6,079,608
Ports	80	6,215,511
Rail	52	4,515,282
Renewables	105	8,013,380
Water	67	5,780,659
Wireless Telecoms	71	5,633,398

¹ Preqin's reporting information for the 34 UK pension shows an average asset allocation of 4.3% to infrastructure. We have applied Preqin's 4.3% allocation to the £2426bn.

² There are a further 36 UK pension schemes that have a financial interest in UK infrastructure. However, up to date membership figures for these schemes are unavailable.