

About GIIA

Who we are

GIIA is the membership body for the world's leading investors in infrastructure and advisors to the sector.

Our close to 100 members collectively represent in the region of USD$1.65 trillion of infrastructure assets under management across 70 countries, with more than 2,000 assets spanning telecommunications, transport, renewables, utilities and more.

We build understanding of the positive role played by private investors in long-term projects, shaping policies that facilitate the funding needed for decarbonised, connected infrastructure networks.

Membership

We offer a range of membership categories for both large and small investors, LPs, corporates and for those companies who advise the sector.

Our members are investing today to provide the smart, sustainable and innovative infrastructure needed for our communities and economies to thrive. The investor member base of GIIA is diverse and ranges from fund managers, pension funds, insurers and sovereign wealth funds.

Our aims & vision

- Make the case for private investment in infrastructure across the world through evidence based advocacy.
- Promote improved understanding and dialogue between governments and the private sector to create the right environment for investment.
- Foster a community of infrastructure professionals to collectively shape the future of the sector.

“Private investment becomes a recognised, integral part of infrastructure planning, development and management by governments in multiple geographies”

What we do

Our work falls into three distinct areas:

Advocacy

Member engagement
& events

Market insights

Advocacy

Government engagement

We engage directly with Government Ministers and officials and convenes roundtable meetings between members and key decision makers around the globe

Policy working groups

Regional policy working groups covering Europe, UK, North America and Australia meet regularly to shape policy recommendations, submissions and responses to government

Stakeholder engagement

We maintain a network of key stakeholder associations and partnerships around the world with whom we collaborate on areas of shared importance

Member engagement & events

Events & webinars

An annual programme of live and virtual events are available to members free of charge on a variety of topics with a range of engaging and informative speakers and panelists.

Emerging leaders network

Our Emerging Leaders in Infrastructure Investment group has grown to more than 300 young professionals working at member companies who are able to join a series of events and build their professional networks

Member discounts

Members of GIIA are able to enjoy discounts on ticket prices for many of the largest conferences around the world, as well as discounted learning opportunities.

Market insights

Reports & publications

We produce reports and publications on relevant topics facing the sector. Recent examples have included: net zero, climate and technology risks for infrastructure, the future of regulation, hydrogen and our Global Asset Database

Share best practice

We convene forums for experts within our membership working on Tax, ESG & Sustainability as well as Communications & Public Affairs

Infrastructure Pulse survey

Members are invited to participate in the Infrastructure Pulse Survey which provides a regular temperature check of investor sentiment in both the European and Americas markets

GIIA events

We host a regular programme of live and virtual events, covering a variety of topics, such as: sustainable investments in Europe, future of UK regulation, bridging the American infrastructure gap, as well as net zero, climate resilience and digital infrastructure.

More than 1000 people attended GIIA in-person events in 2022
